Water Me, Water Me ha ja

Life has brought me here today we meant to share part of the way said life has brought me here today and I wanna say we're meant to share part of the way so come around and feel me, see me, hear me let me feel you in a place where there is no judgement no judgement no

INTERLUDE

Sleepless dancing on the hills of java breathing in what a bliss o mother, melt into you I become stellar feel your skin
I return into your eyes , unravel the mystery once again let us forever exist, in this way
